MALE AND FEMALE MINIMUM WAGE ORDER No. 4 (1953)

COOK AND BUNK-HOUSE OCCUPATION (IN UNORGANIZED TERRITORY)

Interpretation.

PURSUANT to the provisions of the "Male Minimum Wage Act" and the "Female Minimum Wage Act," the Board of Industrial Relations hereby orders:—

1. That for the purposes of this Order, "cook and bunk-house occupation" means any work performed by any male or female employee in or incidental to the operation of any kitchen, dining-room, cook-house, bunk-house, or recreation-room operated in connection with any industrial undertaking in unorganized territory, and without limiting the generality of the foregoing description means the work of cooks, dish-washers, waiters, bunk-house and recreation-room attendants, and others employed in a similar capacity.

Application of order.

2. That this Order shall apply to every employer and every male and female employee in the cook and bunk-house occupation in unorganized territory only except:—

- (a) Employees who are exempt from the provisions of section 3 of the "Hours of Work Act" pursuant to the provisions of section 4 of the said Act; and
- (b) Employees covered by the Order of the Board establishing a minimum wage in the geophysical exploration industry.

Minimum wage.

3. That the minimum wage for every employee to whom this Order applies shall be as provided in clauses (a) and (b) of this section and section 4 (b) and (c) of this Order.

- (a) Eighty cents per hour, except to employees specified in clause (b) of this section;
- (b) Employees classified under section 7 of the "Male Minimum Wage Act" or section 6 of the "Female Minimum Wage Act" for whose employment permits in writing have been issued by the Board:—
The wage or rate of pay prescribed in the permit.

Weekly rest period.

4. (a) That, except as provided in clauses (b) and (c) of this section, every employee shall be given a rest period of 32 consecutive hours weekly, of which the employee shall be duly notified by the employer.

(b) That in cases where it is recognized that the provisions of clause (a) of this section are unsuitable, the employee shall accumulate the weekly rest periods on the basis of one day for every six days worked and the accumulated rest periods shall, except as hereinafter provided, be taken in full at least once every three consecutive calendar months.

Pay in lieu of rest periods.

- (i) In the event that conditions make it impossible for the employee to take the accumulated rest periods and the employee has worked in excess of 572 hours in the three consecutive calendar months, in lieu of the said accumulated rest periods the minimum wage shall be time and one-half the employee's regular rate of pay for all hours worked in excess of 572 hours in the three consecutive calendar months;

- (ii) In the event that an employee's service is terminated at a time when he has accumulated rest periods and the employee has not worked in excess of 572 hours in the three consecutive calendar months, in lieu of the accumulated rest periods the minimum wage shall be time and one-half the employee's regular rate of pay for all hours worked in excess of an average 44-hour week determined on the basis of the employee's period of employment during which the rest periods have been accumulated.

Board may vary provisions of sec. 4 (a) and (b).

(c) That in exceptional cases where the employer and his employees or their representatives make application in writing requesting the Board to establish conditions with respect to the weekly rest period different from those provided in clauses (a) and (b) of this section and the Board is of the opinion that the proposed conditions are not inferior to those provided in the said clauses, it may, by order, vary the provisions of the said clauses whereupon the variance ordered by the Board shall be applicable to the said employer and employees in lieu of the provisions of clauses (a) and (b) of this section.

5. That every employer shall, at least as often as semi-monthly, pay to each of his employees all wages and salary earned by the employee up to a day not more than 8 days prior to the date of payment. Payment of wages.

6. That no charge or deduction from the wages of employees shall be made by employers for accidental breakages by employees of any articles belonging to the employer. No deductions for breakages.

7. That every employer shall post a copy of this Order and keep it posted in a conspicuous place in his establishment, so that all employees affected thereby have ready access to and see the same. Order to be posted.

8. (1) That every employer shall keep in his establishment a true and correct record in the English language of the wages paid to and the hours worked each day by each of his employees, together with a register in the English language of the names, ages, occupations, and residential addresses of his employees. Records to be kept.

(2) That every employer shall, on demand of the Board or any person authorized in writing by the Chairman of the Board, produce for inspection all records kept by him relating to the wages, hours of labour, or conditions of labour and employment of any or all of his employees. Records to be produced.

9. That Order No. 4 (1946), establishing a minimum wage in the cook and bunk-house occupation, dated June 26th, 1946, is hereby rescinded.

10. That this Order, made by the Board at Vancouver, B.C., on the 18th day of December, 1953, shall take effect on the 1st day of March, 1954. Order effective.
